Applicability

This policy applies to members of the Board of Directors and all employees of Agnes MacPhail Co-operative Homes Inc.

General Policy and Responsibilities

1. It is the Board of Directors intent to fully investigate any suspected acts of fraud, misappropriation or other similar irregularity. An objective and impartial investigation will be conducted regardless of the position, title, length of service or relationship with Agnes MacPhail Co-operative Homes Inc. of any party who might be or becomes involved in or becomes/is the subject of such investigation.

All directors, officers and employees of Agnes MacPhail Co-operative Homes Inc. will cooperate fully with the Board of Directors to ensure that any suspected acts of fraud, misappropriation or other similar irregularity are investigated to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors and Niagara Regional Housing.

2. In all circumstances, where there are reasonable grounds to indicate that a fraud may have occurred, the Board of Directors, subject to the advice of its legal counsel, will contact its insurance company, the Niagara Police Service and the Niagara Regional Housing.

3. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the results will be reported to the President of the Board of Directors. The President will provide a copy of the results to the Niagara Regional Housing.

4. The Board of Directors will pursue every reasonable effort, including court ordered restitution, to obtain recovery of the corporation's losses from the offender or other appropriate sources.

Procedures

1) Reporting

a) All Employees

Any employee who has knowledge of an occurrence of irregular conduct, or has reason to suspect that a fraud has occurred, shall immediately notify his/her supervisor. If the employee has reason to believe that the employee's supervisor may be involved, the employee shall immediately notify the President of the Board of Directors.

Employees shall not attempt to investigate a suspected fraud or discuss the matter with anyone other than a person to whom the fraud was reported, staff of the Niagara Regional Housing and the police.

An allegation of fraud is a serious matter. Employees who knowingly make false allegations will be subject to discipline up to and including dismissal.

b) Supervisors

Upon notification from an employee of a suspected fraud, or if the supervisor has reason to suspect that a fraud has occurred, the supervisor shall immediately notify the President. The supervisor shall not attempt to investigate the suspected fraud or to discuss the matter with anyone other than the President, staff of the Niagara Regional Housing Unit and the police.

c) President

Upon notification from an employee of a suspected fraud, or if the President has reason to suspect that a fraud has occurred, the President shall immediately advise the Board of Directors and the Niagara Regional Housing. The President shall not attempt to investigate the suspected fraud or to discuss the matter with anyone other than the Board of Directors, staff of Niagara Regional Housing and the police.

d) Board of Directors

Upon notification or discovery of a suspected fraud, the Board of Directors will, in consultation with the Niagara Regional Housing. Promptly conduct an initial review and make a determination whether or not the suspected fraud warrants additional investigation. In all circumstances where there appears to be reasonable grounds for suspecting that a fraud has taken place, the Board of Directors, in consultation with the corporation's legal counsel, will contact the Niagara Police Service. The President shall coordinate the investigation with the Niagara Regional Housing and appropriate law enforcement officials. The Board of Directors shall investigate any suspected fraud to the satisfaction of the Niagara Regional Housing.

2) Security of Evidence

a) Once a suspected fraud is reported, the Board of Directors, in consultation with the corporation's legal counsel and the Niagara Regional Housing, shall take immediate action to prevent the theft, alteration, or destruction of relevant records.

b) Such actions may include, but are not limited to, removing the records and placing them in a secure location, limiting access to the location where the records currently exist, and preventing any individual(s) suspected of committing the fraud from having access to the records. The records must be adequately secured until the investigator engaged to conduct the investigation or the police take control of the records to begin the audit investigation.

3) Confidentiality

All participants in a fraud investigation shall keep the details and results of the investigation confidential.

4) Personnel Action

a) If a suspicion of fraud is substantiated by the investigation, disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, shall be taken by the Board of Directors in consultation with the corporation's legal counsel.

b) Unless exceptional circumstances exist, a person under investigation for fraud shall be given notice in writing of the essential particulars of the allegations following the conclusion of the audit investigation and prior to final disciplinary action being taken. Where notice is given, the person against whom allegations are being made may submit a written explanation to the Chair of the Board of Directors no later than seven calendar days after the notice is received. This requirement is subject to any collective agreement provisions respecting the rights of employees during disciplinary proceedings.

No Person acting on behalf of Niagara Regional Housing, including the Board of Directors, shall:

a) Dismiss or threaten to dismiss an employee;

b) Discipline or suspend or threaten to discipline or suspend an employee;

c) Impose any penalty upon an employee;

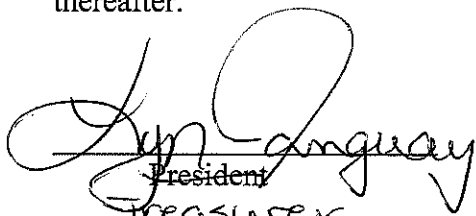

d) Intimidate or coerce an employee;

because the employee has acted in accordance with the requirements of the policy. Violation of this section will result in discipline up to and including dismissal.

6) Media Issues

Any staff person or member of the Board of Directors contacted by the media with respect to an audit investigation shall refer the media to the President. The alleged fraud or audit investigation shall not be discussed with the media by any person other than the President. The alleged fraud or audit investigation shall not be discussed with the media by any person other than the President in consultation with the corporation's legal counsel.

This Policy was approved by the Board of Directors on November 10, 2016 effective immediately redacting the previous Irregularities Policy. It will be reviewed on an annual basis thereafter.
